The Evening Star is served to subscribers in the rity by carriers, on their own account, at 10 cents per week, or 44 cents per month. Cories at the counter, 2 cents each. By mail—postare prepaid—50 cents a month, me year, $6; six months, $3. Finitered at the Post Office at Washington, D. C., as second-class mail matter.]

THE WEEKLY STAR-published on Friday-$2 a year, postage propaid. Six months, $1; 10 copies for $15; 20 topies for $20. 13° All mail subscriptions must be paid in advance; be paper sent longer than is paid for. Rates of Edvertising made known on application.

AMUSEMENTS.

CORD'S OPERA HOUSE.

A GRAND DEAMATIC EVENT. FIVE NIGHTS AND ONE MATINEE, COMMENCING MONDAY, JANUARY 9. First appearance in Washington of the illustrious Radian Tragedian, ROSSI, Supported by Mr. MILNES LEVICK and an American Company.

Tuesday, January 10. EDMUND KEAN Wethersury, January 11. KING LEAR Thursday, January 12. OTHELAO Friday, January 13. EDMUND KEAN Beforday Matince. ROMEO AND JULIET

Reserved seats $1.50 and $1. according to the seats $1.50 acco

Reserved seats $1.50 and $1, according to location. January 16-The Besten Ideal Opera Company. jal0 LINCOLN HALL.

First performance of the WASHINGTON OPERATIC ASSOCIATION For its own Benefit, FEIDAY AND SATURDAY EVENINGS AND SAT-URBAY MATINEE, JANUARY 13 AND 14.

THE CHIMES OF NORMANDY, e following principals: Miss Eva Mills, Mrs. frue, Misses Florence Kideell, Iola Williams, W. Cross, Mrs. D. B. MacLeod, Messrs. John L. E. B. Hey, L. P. Seibeld, Harry C. Pearson, oresman and a chorae comperium; the best both male and female, in the District and number seventy.

es, both male and female, in the District and the mover seventy. In over seventy, the orchestra will be taken from the Marine Band, will be full and complete. The whole to be under direction of Mr. John P. Somsa, Musical Director.

A Seliason, Stage Manuser.

75 cents extra linee.

50 cents fox-sheet new even at Ellis' Music Store.

Idmis ion tickets, exchangable for reserved seats, for a by members.

THE BOSTON IDEAL OPERA COMPANY WITH COMPLETE CHORUS AND ENTIRE OR-CHESTRA,

As appeared in Boston, will commence an ENGLISH OFFICA STASON
AT FORD'S OFFICA HOUSE,
In this city, NEXT MONDAY.

Places can now be reserved. The company includes
Mr. Myron W. Whitney and other eminent soloists, jalo-at

NATIONAL THEATER. COMMENCING MONDAY, JANUARY 9, Every Evening and Saturday Matinee. (There will be no Matinee on Wednesday.) THE COMEDIANS,

ROBSON AND CRANE. MONDAY, TUESDAY AND WEDNESDAY EVEN-INGS AND SATURDAY MATINEE. OUR BACHELORS,

MR. BACHELOR BANGLE.......Mr. Stuart Robson RR. BACHELOR JOWLER......Mr. Wm. H. Crane THURSDAY, FRIDAY AND SATURDAY EVENINGS, SHARPS AND FLATS.

Monday, January 16,-MR. LAWRENCE BARRETT. ON EXHIBITION (No. 626 MARKRITER'S, No. 626 E street northwest, one door from 7th street, Choice Oil Faintings, Engravings, Chromos, etc.; also Large and Chice Steck of Faperhangings, Picture Frames, Picture Cert and Tassels, Rings, Nails, etc., at Markuter's, Terms Cash, Free Art Gallery, 017

R. ROSS PERRY,
ATTORNEY-AT-LAW,
342 D STREET,
Opposite City Hall.

HENRY WISE GARNETT,
ATTORNEY AT-LAW,
No. 2 Columbian Law Building, 5th st., bet. D and E, see 6-6m, 1p
WASHINGTON, D. C.

FINE GRADES.

MAPLE, Every thickness.

SOFT YELLOW POPLAR, Every thickness,

HOLIDAY GOODS.

LADIES!

DO YOU WANT A PURE, BLOOMING COMPLEXION? If so, a few applications of Hagan's

DISEASES AND IMPERFECTIONS OF THE SKIN.

IT OVERCOMES THE FLUSHED APPEARANCE OF HEAT

FATIGUE AND EXCITEMENT.

IT MAKES A LADY OF THIRTY APPEAR BUT TWENTY!

EURERA SPRINGS WATER (from Arkansas), Summit, Deep Rock, Geyser (Saratoga), Be theada, Eine Lick, Bedferd, Salorian, Michigan, Con-gress Water, and other Natural Waters, freshly received, and for sevie on drag selt at

317 NINTH STREET NORTHWEST,

Our up-town customers are respectfully informed that

HAYWARD & HUTCHINSON,

we have occupied our New Shop,

MILBURN'S PHARMACY,

WASHINGTON, D.C., Dec. 24, 1881.

E. F. BROOKS.

HARD WOOD YARD, SPRAGUE'S SQUARE.

3 | SIXTH STREET AND NEW YORK AVENUE. LARGE | SPRAGUE SQUARE.

WILLET & LIBBEY.

DAMMANN'S

GREAT CLOSING-OUT SALE

WINTER GOODS.

LADIES, GENT'S AND CHILDREN'S MERINO AND WOOLLEN UNDERWEAR

MEN'S HEAVY GLOVES.

HOSIERY AT REDUCED PRICES.

DAMMANN'S . 806 TTH STREET NORTHWEST.

STAL SKIN DOLMANS, S'AL SKIN SACUTES, I'ER LINED CHRULARS, I'ER LINED DOLMANS, ELFDS, COACHIES and COLLARS, FUE TELEMING BY THE YARD. ALL AT REDUCED PRICES.

B. H. STINEMETZ.

CAMPHORINE, FOR CHAPPED SKIN,

L. C. BISHOP, Druggist, 730 5th street, cor. H st. northwest A RLINGTON LIVERY AND SALES STABLES—
A RLINGTON LIVERY AND SALES STABLES—
JNO. H. GLAIK, Manager—1724 6 street, between 17th and 18th streets.—Keep for bire Landaus, Coupes, Coupeleites, and, in fact, all of the latest styles of carriages, by the hour or month, with drivers in full livery.
Laddes' and Gente's Saddle Horses. Carriages formished ony hour, day or night. Orders through telephone exchange promptly attended to. Particular stiention given to boarding horses.

d31-1m*

EVERY ONE HIS OWN ARTIST. A WONDERFUL INVENTION.

New Art, embracing all kinds of drawing, acquired in one to three lessons. Outfits required are furnished free. Satisfaction or no charge on first lesson. Call and examine drawings after one lesson. McLEOD'S Studio, Rosm 3, Vernon Row, corner Pennsylvania avenue and 10thstreet northwest. Take clevator. d3-2m

Frening Sta

Vol. 59-No. 8,974.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

JANUARY 10, 1882.—TO THE MEMBERS OF THE MUTUAL FIRE INSURANCE COMPANY OF THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA.—At a meeting of the members of your company, held at the Board of Trade Rooms last evening, the following resolution was unanimously adopted:
"Resolved, That thus meeting recommend, and place in nomination, Mr. JAMES S. EDWARDS as Manager, in the place of Mr. Norment, who declines a re-election."
WM. H. CLAGETT, Chairman.
THOMAS BRODERICK, Secretary.

THE MONTHLY MEETING OF CENTRAL

LO. O. F.—THE REGULAR QUARTERLY Communication of the R. W. Grand Ledge, D. C., will be held TO MORROW (Wednesday) EVENING, at 7 o'clock.

1t P. HALL SWEET, Grand Secretary.

ATTENTION, SONS OF JONADAB!—AN

ATTENTION, SONS OF JONADAB: AN 15 adjourned sersion of the Grand Council will be held THIS (Tuesday) EVENING, at 7:30 o'clock, at Mount Vernon Hell, (upper hell.) A full attendance is de ired. CLARENCE P. STETSON, Grand Chief. GUY W. WINES, Grand Speretary. 1t

SOCIETY FOR THE PREVENTION OF CRUELTY TO ANIMALS.

The annual meeting of this Society will be held

TUESDAY EVENING,

January 10, 1882, at 7:30 p.m., In Room 22, LeDroit Building, corner 8th and F streets. All members are earnestly requested to be present. 1t*

The annual meeting of the Association will be held in Old Fellows Hall, 7th street northwest, on TUESDAY EVENING, 10th inst., at 7½ o'c ock. Annual report, election of officers and other business. Ja9-2t THOMAS W. FOWLER, Secretary.

GRAND LODGE, F.A.A.M., OF THE DIS-trict of Columbia.—The stated communication of the Grand Lodge, F.A.A.M., of the District of Co-lumbia, will be held at Masonic Teinpie, on WEDNES-DAY, January 11th, 1882, at 6 o'clock p.m. By order of the M.W. Grand Master. ja9-2t WM. R. SINGLETON, Grand Secretary.

WASHINGTON, D. C., TUESDAY, JANUARY 10, 1882.

THE UTAH CASE IN THE HOUSE.

In the Senate To-day.

Mr. Lydecker, who was chief special deputy BUSINESS IN THE SENATE. NOMINATIONS, ETC. collector of the port of New York when President Arthur was collector of that port, will be reappointed to that position. WHITE HOUSE CALLERS.-To-day being Cabinet day at the White House very few callers were received by the President. There were no delegations. Senators Hale, McDill, Saunders, Hill (Col.), and Representatives Moore, Smith (Iil.), Urner, Wait, Miller, Van Horn and Houk were among the tee-A substitute for, in the nature of an amend-callers who were received. COLORED DOORKEEPERS IN MISSISSIPPL-In both postponed. houses of the Mississippi legislature colored doorkeepers have been elected, so a letter from Jackson received at the Capitol states. The colored doorkeepers are democrats, of course.

Washington News and Gossip.

GOVERNMENT RECEIPTS TO-DAY .- Internal reve-

A PROBABLE REAPPOINTMENT .- It is stated that nue $340,342.55; customs. $607,358.80.

ATTENTION, JERSEYMEN!—A MEETING of the New Jersey R publican Association will be held at No. 540 11th street northwest, WEDNES-DAY, 11th inst., at 7:30 p.m. All Jerseymen in this city are cordially invited to attend, ja10-2t JACOB W. STARR, President. ALL THE MEMBERS OF THE CABINET except Secretary Hunt were present at the meeting this afternoon. The Navy department was not repre-

THE FREE BRIDGE MATTER is in no more feward state than last week. The question will probably go back to Congress, and I' it does an appropria-tion of $210,000 will be asked for.

ACACIA LODGE, No. 18, F.A.A.M.—REGULar communication THIS (Tuesday) EVENING.
Installation of officers by Past Grand Master E. G.
DAVIS. Address by Bro. STIFE. Members are request d to attend. By order of the W.M.
H'
J. J. LITTLE, Secretary.

THE WASHINGTON KINDERGARTEN
LUNION meets WEDNESDAY, January 11, at 7:30 o'clock, in the School Pariors of the National Kindergarten Building, 9:19 5th street. Parents and teachers are specially invited to be present.

MRS. LOUISE POLLOCK,
It President of Washington Kindergarten Union. THE INDEPENDENT MOVEMENT IN GEORGIA.-It is understood that negotiations are pending to induce Senator J. E. Brown, of Georgia, to take the lead of the independent movement in Georgia.

D. Barber, Worthington, Minu.; Lemuel Adams, Greenville, Hi.; Henry A. Miller, Camden, Ark.; James H. Hackleberry, Van Buren, Ark. lead of the independent movement in Georgia. Senator Brown was elected to the Senate on an in-dependent canvass. Whether he will assume the liberal or independent leadership in Georgia is not known. It is thought, however, that he may be induced to accept it.

PERSONAL -- Mr. E. P. Brooks, formerly of this city, now U.S. consul at Cork, arrived in New York yesterday, accompanied by his wife. - F.L. Morris, of Washington, was a passenger by the overland train to arrive at San Francisco last Friday.—

Ex-Delegate Hooper, of Utah, accompanied by his daughters, Miss Hattle and Libbie, is at the Higgs House.—Col. D. H. Strother ('Port Crayon'), U. S. consul general at Mexico, is at the Kiggs House.—Gol. B. Strother ('Port Crayon'), U. S. consul general at Mexico, is at the Arlington.—Ex-Minister Huribut arrived in Washington from Peru yesterday, and is staying at the Arlington.—Gen. Stephen H. Manning, of Wilmington, N. C., (fermerly of Maine) is at the National.—Ex-Senator Chaffee, of Colorado, is at the Arlington.—Representative Frost, of St. Louis, has been elected president of the Knights of St. Patrick of that city.—Miss Robson, daughter of Stuart Robson, the comedian, visited the White House and several departments to-day.—Col. Amos Webster, late register of wills, is quite sick at his residence, 1731 F street, with an affection of the Utah contested election case, of Washington, was a passenger by the overland

THE WOMAN'S CHRISTIAN TEMPER-ANCE UNION will hold Go-pel meetings every day this week, from 12 to 1 o'clock, at Masonic Tem-ple, 907 F street northwest. Rev. J. F. NAUGLE, (re-cently at Wansh Chapel,) will conduct the services. Everybody welcome. Gen. Abert, civil engineer, U. S. A., under whose direction a survey of the river front with a view to permanent improvement has just been completed, as a substitute a resolution referring to the committee on elections the permanent improvement has just been completed, as a substitute a resolution referring to the committee on elections the permanent improvement has just been completed, as the interest and an estimate will estimate the improvement of the Washing-offered as a substitute a resolution referring to the committee on elections the permanent improvement has just been completed, is busy preparing his report, and hopes to have it ready in a few days. His estimates will embrace the improvement of the Washing-offered as a substitute a resolution referring to the committee on elections the count to determine was no actual malice—and that they must take the evidence of this prison as they must take the evidence of this prison as they must take the evidence of this prison as they must take the evidence of this prison as they must take the evidence of this prison as they must take the evidence of this prison as they must take the evidence of this prison as they must take the evidence of this prison as they must take the evidence of this prison as they must take the evidence of this prison as they must take the evidence of this prison as they must take the evidence of this prison as they must take the evidence of this prison as they must take the evidence of this prison as they must take the evidence of this prison as they must take the evidence of this prison of the prima face right as between Campbell and Cannon to be sworp in as the was must cannon to be sworp in as they must take the evidence of this prison as they must take the evidence of this prison of the prima face right as the with must be a they must take the evidence of this prison of the prima face right as the interior of the prima face right as the interior of the prima face right as the wint of the prima face right as the wint of the prima face out the Eastern Branch for future legislation. He will estimate that it will take about $2,000,000 to improve the two harbors mentioned, including of course the filling up the flats. He will include in his report a bill to be sent to Congress to be enacted to carry out his plans. That bill has not yet been finally completed, but the draft of it will differ only in very unimportant details from the following plans:

argue in support of his resolution. The subject was under discussion when our report closed at 3 p.m.

Capitol Notes.

There were about 675 bills introduced in the House of Representatives yesterday, and the President's message was referred to the proper committees.

Mr. Sherman advocated his 3 per cent refunding

LECTURES.

LECTURES.

| 199-3t | 1416 F street northwest. | 1416 F street n Company, of D.C.:

At a meeting of Policy-holders of the above Company, the following rentiemen of the OLD BOARD were nominated as candidates for election on MONDAY, January 16th, 1882: is hereby, authorized and directed to cause said improvements and reclamations to be made in conformity with the following plan: There shall be established a new river-front along the left bank of the river by filling in upon a certain area, in which are included said flats or marshes, the boundary-line of said new river-front to begin at the south end of the earth causeway now forming a portion of Long Britge, and to extend up the river, conforming substantially to the line proposed by the board of survey created by act of Congress approved March 5th, 1872, in their report to Congress December 17th, 1872, and to terminate at or near the Observatory Hill; said filling or embankment herein 16th, 1882:

FOR MANAGERS.

1. JESSE B. WILSON.
2. JOHN VAN RISWICK.
3. MATTHEW G. EMERY.
4. J. W. BARKER.
5. E. KURTZ JOHNSON.
6. GEORGE T. DEARING.
7. SAMUEL H. WALKER.
The name of Samuel H. Walker was endorsed to fill the vacancy in the Old Board caused by the published resignation of Samuel Norment.
The action of the Board of Managers in reducing salaries and premiums was heartly approved. All policy holders are requested punctually to attend.

Amount of prenium, was bearing approved.

All policy holders are requested punctually to attend.

Amount of prenium notes held by company of the prenium notes held by company of the company

ash received on renewals for year 1882. 10,186 87 pleted within two years from the passage of the calestate. 2,061 87 pleted within two years from the passage of the 49,600 60
7,964 96
128 50
the Mutual
CLER, Secretary.

A ct.

The work herein provided for shall be let to the lowest responsible bidder, after giving thirty days' notice of the time and place of said letting, in such manner as the Secretary of War may deem best, which notice shall be given within thirty days after the passage of this act.

No portion of the lands which shall be reclaimed shall be said to granted densited on otherwise and

JAMES H. McGHL, WHOLESALE AND RETAIL DEALER IN BUILDING SUPPLIES, 1421 New York avenue, near the Treasury Department, Washington, D. C.
Bartlett, Hayward & Co,'s Architectural Iron Work. Masury's Paints and Colors, Leads, Olis, Plate, Window and Onannental Glass; Minton's Tiles, Terra Cotta, Portland Cement, &c. d13-3m The members of the committees on the District to accompany him some day this week upon a tour of observation on the Potomac river. Major Twin-A large assortment of Fancy Porcelain and Duplex Lamps, Portables and Fancy Shade Paper Shades. Magnificent Display of Gas Fixtures.

In will provide a tug-boat for the commutees, and the idea is to examine the channels of the river, the Long bridge piers and other points with the view of reaching some conclusion as to what is ing will provide a tug-boat for the committees, and necessary for the reclamation of the flats. District Government Affairs.

Mr. Henry Hurt, president of the Washington and Georgetown railroad, in a note to the District Commissioners, requests permission to extend the 14th street brinch of that railroad from its terminus at Boun lary street north, along the line of 14th street extended to the village of Mount Pleasant. He states that authority to grant this permission may be found in the 13th Statutes at Large, pp. 322. The paper has been referred to the Engineer Commissioner.

The petition of property holders on Virginia avenue to the Commissioners, protesting against the permission being granted the Baitimore & Potomac railroad from laying its tracks across the sidewalk in order to connect with the word word. sidewalk in order to connect with the wood yard of John Miller, which was referred to Mr. Riddle, attorney for the District, as heretofore stated, has been returned by him, with the following opinion: "January 7, 1881. I think that under the charter of the company adopted by the acts of Congress, and thus made the law of the District, the company has the power to construct the tracks in question, and the Commissioners had power to grant the permit."

A FATHER AND HIS THREE DAUGHTERS MISSING. Mr. Patrick Clancy, a young white man employed by Mr. Geo. W. Knox, express man, who has been living at 320 M street southwest, left his home Sat-urday afternoon last, taking his three little children with him—girls, aged respectively 6, 4 and 2 years, and has not been seen since. Mrs. Clancy is greatly adarmed at their absence, and can give no reason for their absence. Mr. Clancy is 29 years old, 5 feet 7 inches high, dark-brown hair, large red moustache, and will weigh about 140 pounds.

WILLS FILED.—In the Register of Wills office the will of the late Margaret Jefferson has been filed. She bequeathes her personal property to her aunt during life, and at her death to her si-ter. The aunt referred to only survived Mrs. Jefferson a few hours and was burled at the same time. The will of the late John Wm. Evans, bequeathing his estate to his wife, and at her death to the children, has been filed and order of publication issued. has been filed and order of publication issued.

The small-pox has been spreading in Jersey City in the most alarming manner during the past few days. In New York city several new cases were deys. In New York city several new cases were reported yesterdey, and several of a virulent character were found in thickly settled tenementouse districts, and which had been concealed

A COSTLY BRIDGE.—According to the report of the treasurer of the bridge over the East river between New York and Brooklyn the sum of $13, 377,155 has been expended upon the bridge, and it will require $600,000 more to complete it.

SHAVES WITH VOLUPTUOUS EASE!

Over 3,000 in use in this city! Warranted for 10 years!

Combination Strop, only 75 cents.

O'MEARA'S BAZAR,

1347 Pennsylvania avenue, Washington, D. C.

N. E.—The trade supplied at low rates.

Catholics and the Lague.

Catholics and the Lague.

Catholics and the Lague.—Wm. Purcell, editor of the Rochester Union, (catholic), of Rochester Union, (cat

CONGRESSIONAL PROCEEDINGS. THE GREAT MURDER TRIAL.

SCATHING DENUNCIATION OF GUITEAU.

RULINGS OF JUDGE COX ON THE INSTRUCTIONS. The following reports from committees were made: By Mr. Morri'l, from the finance commitment to, the bill to fix the term of office of col- JURISDICTION OF THE COURT SUSTAINED. lectors of internal revenue. By Mr. Edmunds, rom the committee on judiciary-Adversely, the bill relating to the Venezuela awards. Indefinitely Mr. Bayard, from the finance committee, re-Mr. Bayard, from the finance committee, reported, with a recommendation that it pass, the Morrill tariff commission bill; and also, with an adverse report, the Garland commission bill.

Upon the conclusion of Mr. Bayard's remarks, (the morning hour having in the meanting been extended informally), the Sherman funding bill came up, but was temporarily laid aside without a vote.

Mr. Beck then took the floor. Nominations To-day. The following nemitations were sent to the Senate this afternoon: Postmasters—Charles E. Dennett, Walden, Mass.; Harrison H. Updigrove, Van the dock and sat with the prisoner.

West, O.; Solon J. Buttles, Garrettsville, O.; Rio House of Representatives. Mr. Kassen presented and had read a memorial memorial to a joint committee to consist or three members of the Senate and five members of the House. Adopted. Mr. Page, under instruction from the committee on commerce, called attention to the fact that a bill, introduced yesterday by Mr. Buckner, "to give American registry to foreign-built from and first meeting this morning, took up the Senate bill providing for the extension of national bank charters. The sentiment developed was favorable to the bill.

THE HOUSE APPROPRIATIONS COMMITTEE. Gen. Walker, ex-supertatendent of the census, all the conditions of malice. was further heard this morning by the appropriations committee in explanation of the deficiency in can be prepared. THE PROPOSED CONGRESSIONAL LIBRARY.

surchase of the blocks on the north and south | dent Arthur under a misapprehension." side of the Capitol for sites for a Congressional Library and other public buildings. Senator Voorhees has called a meeting ate the building east of the Capitol will be greed upon. This site seemed to be more accept-ble last year than any other, and as the object of he committee is to get a building as soon as possible, they do not care to arouse any antigonis-

The District in Congress.

HE SOUTHERN MARYLAND EARLEOAD IN THE DIS-Mr. Gorman yesterday introduced a bill in the Senate to authorize the Southern Maryland Railroad Company to extend a rathroad into and within the District of Columbia. It provides that the road may enter the District near its northeastern angle, and proceeding thence in a northwestwardly direction across the Baltimore and Potomac railold, near Benning's station, and across the East branch of the Baltimore and Ohio railroad, near the southern angle of the Fair grounds; thence across the Bladen-burg road to a junction with the Metropolitan branch of the Baltimore and Ohio road, at or near the two-mile post, which point shall be the northern terminus of the Southern Maryland railroad. The act confers the usual powers, privileges, etc., and makes the same re-strictions usually incorporated in such laws, and also provides that unless the company shall conalso provides that unless the company shall commence the construction of the road within two years, and shall complete the same with at least one set of tracks within three years from the passage of the act, that the act and post-sage privileges conferred by it shall cease and deter-mine. Referred to the District committee, Mr. Urner introduced a similar bill in the House.

MISCELLANEOUS BILLS OF DISTRICT INTEREST. bill for the construction of the Washington and Georgetown steam railway; Mr. Urner—A bill for the relief of the Ammoniated Fertilizer Company of the District of Columbia: Mr. Barr-To inc of the District of Columbia; Mr. Barr—To increase the water supply of the District of Columbia; Mr. Matson—To compensate the employes of the Bureau of Engraving and Printing and paying for lost time; Mr. McCook—To place the Botanical garden under the control of the department of Agriculture; Mr. Crowley—To extend the jurisdiction of justices of the peace in the District of Columbia.

National Convention of Agriculturists THEIR SESSION TO-DAY.

the Agricultural department. There were present delegations from eighteen of the states. Dr. George B. Loring, Commissioner of Agriculture, made a neat address of welcome, after which he stated the general program and suggested that committees be appointed—one on credentials and one on organization. Prof. P. Schweitzer, of Missouri; Henry Clark, of Vermont, and M. C. George, of Oregon, were appointed on the first, and reported the list of (about 150) delegates.

A recess was taken to enable the delegates to confer as to members of the committee on organization, and one from each state was appointed. This committee reported the following differs for the convention:—Dr. G. B. Lering, of Mass., presi-dent; one vice president from each state; Major Henry E. Alvord, of Houghton farm, New York, and Col. George E. Eryant, secretary of the state board of education of Wisconsin, seen taries. Prof. Geo. E. Cook, of Rutgers college, N.J., read an essay on "Agricultural Education," which was discussed by Secretary Gold, of Conn.; Prof. Mc-Bryde, of Tenn. Senator Sergent, and others. Bryde, of Tenn.; Senator Sargent, and others.

The Glass Manufacturers' Association of the United States met in semi-annual convention at the Riggs House to-day. About sixty members from all parts of the country were present. James Withail presided, and Mr. W. Elliott Smith was secretary. Matters conductive to mutual benefit were discussed. The association does not admit representatives of the press to its meetings. This afternoon another meeting was held. Tonight there will be another meeting and a final adjournment.

JUDGE PORTER'S ARGUMENT.

"The tragedy will begin this morning," said Mr. Charles Reed on the court house steps, before the trial of Guiteau was resumed to-day—referring to the style of oratory of Judge Porter, who was expected to speak. The court room was closely packed with people. Messrs. Scoville and Reed his remarks brief. He thought the court would do survey, and offered a resolution referring the it had not been by the procurement of the prosecution. Mr. Reed, in opening the argument, he said, had made a lawyer-like argument; he had chosen the only two topics that a lawyer would sustain; the other topics assigned in the partition to Mr. Reed's associate were such as required a long experience in police courts, and with the owis of the woods to sustain.

"Judge, that is a fine speech," said the prisoner, Judge Cox's Rulings on the Points of and I'll have Scoville not do so any more. Let him off this time and he won't do so any more,"

THE QUESTION OF MALICE. Judge Porter said he was glad to see on the question of malice the defence had planted thembeen elected president of the Knights of St. Patrick of that city.—Miss Robson, daughter of Stuart Robson, the comedian, visited the White House and several departments to-day.—Col. Amos Webster, late register of wills, is quite sick at his residence, 1731 F street, with an affection of the liver.

The Improvement of the River Front.

Report of Gen. Abert, civil engineer, U. S. A., under whose

Gen. Abert, civil engineer, U. S. A., under whose

House of Representatives yesterday, and the accepted what God had given him. He criticised no man's voice, no man's elecution, no man's motives, unless they were so transparent as to call for condemnation in a court of justice. He, unhappily, had not had the advantage that Guiteau did of studying at the feet of Mr. Reed. He did not think the disciple he (Mr. Reed) had produced as the result of his teachings commended him as a the result of his teachings

A POINT WHICH PROVOKED A DENIAL FROM THE PRISONER. to the bill.

A bill introduced in the House yesterday by Representative McCook, of N. Y., provides for the pluding of the national bot inical garden under the Department of Agriculture.

PRISONER.

Julge Porter quoted from 1st Archibald's Criminal Pfeadings, as to what constituted malice. He held that the prisoner had, according to his own testimony, committed his crime with a sectate.

testimony, committed his crime with a sedate mind, had hin in wait for the President and filled "That is false," shouted the prisoner.
"It it is a falsehool, then the prisoner has sworn to it himself," said Judge Porter.
"It's a falsehool in the way in which you put it," retorted the prisoner.

IS GUITEAU STEONGER THAN THE LAW? Judge Porter, proceeding, said that the prosecution demand a that the assassin should not be spared through false pretonses. The speaker having said that though Garfiell was dead the gov-Senator Windom to-day introduced a bill for the | said: "You were applyed on this case by Presi-

"Under the misapprehension, your honor," said Julge Porter, "that the law is stronger than the prisoner. The prisoner thinks that Gultan is

"The Lord Aimighty is stronger than the law," said the prisoner.

Judge Porter, proceeding with a severa denunclation of the prisoner, said: "He will feel what he never felt before, a Divine pressure in the form of a hangmun's rope." Mr. Scoville had boldly and shamelessly said that the decisions of the English judges cited were antiquated. "He told the truth," interrupted the prisoner. "He tells you," continued Judge Porter, "and Guiteau confirms him, and Guiteau no douot moved him to do it."

"Guiteau is as good a man as you are," cried out the prisoner.

out the prisoner. "The puppet," continued Judge Porter, "that was moved so readily when he sat by his counsel tern branch of the Potomac river 1,020 feet north of Benning's bridge, and running thence south of Mount Offvet comptery across the Washington branch of the Baltimore and Ohio railroad, near well. His interjections are precipitating his doom."

ter, impressively.

The prisoner became very clamorous at this, and denounced Judge Porter in round terms. "You have mouth enough for a whole family," he cried.

HOW QUICKLY THE PRISONER SEES THE POINT.

Judge Porter having quoted further from the English case, Guiteau again interrupted him.

"You see, your honer," said Judge Porter, "how others were a twentieth anniversary celebration of the capital Bicycle Ciub, at Marinis, ruli accounts of which will be found elsewhere. Among others were a twentieth anniversary celebration "You see, your honor," said Judge Porter, "how quickly the prisoner sees the point and endeavors to keep it from reaching the ears of your honor," "Tell us about MacFarland and Sickles," said the prisoner. "They were sequitted on the ground and the jury did not agree in the MacFarland case, The jury have not yet rendered their verdict here, Judge Porter said, but it would depend somewhat upon the charge of the court; if the prisoner dictated the charge, he had no doubt they would disagree. would disagree.

"I want the truth and the la w, nothing more, Mr. Forter," said the prisoner.

of transitory mania. That is the case here. You

JUDGE PORTER APPLAUDED. Speaking of the prisoner's assertions that such men as President Grant and Senator Conkling would approve the act, he said he only regretted

THE EURDEN OF PROOF OF INSANITY UPON THE Judge Porter said that in eighteen states the courts have reached the conclusion that the bur den of proof was upon the prisoner to establish his

of the new dispensations—the gospel according to Guiteau, and the law according to Scoville. The new dispensation was not to be introduced here. The counsel might clamor as loud as he might; he knew that clamor would not disturb the serenity

he was inspired both ways; he was told by the command of the Divine Will not to come it murder; suppose he had been juspired, as he pretended, and had forgotten the commands of the Blote, then came the question, what was the law of responsibility? First, he must be satisfied by the cath of an honest man that the prisoner believed himself in pired. They had only the oath of this murderer struggling for his life. "Struggling for the life,"

TWO CENTS.

"Struggling for Intillie.
"Struggling for truth and for vindication," interrupted the prisoner.
Judge Porter, having referred to Golfeau as a papil of Scoville, the prisoner said, laughing:
"Pupil of Scoville! I never knew I was a pupil of Scoville before. I always thought Scoville was my pupil."

Judge Porter referring to the decision in the Morwere, as usual, early in court, Judge Porter, for once, appeared in the court room before his associates on the prosecution. In controlletion of the story that a bitter fead exists between them, Mr. Reed went over to Judge Porter and conversed with him several minutes in a good-natured manner.

When the court was called to order, and the prisoner was brought to, Mr. John Guiteau went to the dock and sat with the prisoner.

Judge Porter's Argument.

Mr. Beston the case which Mr. Davidge had not had time to cover. He should enleavor to make his remarks brief. He thought the court would do inspired had to take the consequences of his act.

WOEDS FROM THE GRAVE OF GARFIELD. call ing the attention of Congress to the death of Carlisle P. Patterson, superintendent of the coast order in this case, or unnecessary waste of time, et, he Porter said, came as it were from the grave of ommon sense application of common law princi-les sustained the jurisdiction of the court. It iollows from the authorities he had quoted, he said, that the place of death was immaterial, and the 15th and 14th prayers of the detence would have to be denied. When it became his duty to charge be denied. When it became his duty to charge the jury in this case he would enlarge further upon certain points raised in the prayers. "I am glad, your honor," said the prisoner, "has excluded the 13th instruction. It went in without chined to so instruct the jury, holding that counsel had the right to comment upon testimony. The 12th prayer of the defence also he refused.

TIME REQUIRED FOR THE COMING ARGUMENTS.
When Juge Cox finished speaking at 1:25 p.m., he asked the counsel how much time they needed and possibly three or four.

Mr. Reels did he did not know how many hours. e would need. Mr. Stoville said he would be as brief as he could. prisoner desired, he said, to speak in his own lock in the evening until the arguments were two days. ADJOURNED TILL THURSDAY MORNING. The court adjourned at 1:39 until Thursday morning, Mr. Davidge having asked for a day to prepare his opening address.

SOCIETY NOTES. The visiting yesterday was the liveliest the sea-The visiting yesterday was the inverest ore season thus far has known. All the afternoon receptions were numerously attended, many as they were. The family of Commodore Pattison, Mrs. Menocal, and other ladies living at the Navy Yard, received, and also many of the ladies on Capitol Hill, including the wives of some of the Senators living there, who consult the convenience of the visitors by receiving on the same day as others living in their immediate neighborhood, instead of on Thursday, the day Senators' families usually receive. Owing to the death of the brother of Senator Jones, of Nevada, his wife and Miss Sterwas moved so readily when he sat by his counsel Hill, including the wives of some of the Senators is not so readily moved now. He doesn't time as well. His interjections are precipitating his doom."

Judge Porter having included in his denunciation the whole tribe of Gaitana's, except those who honorably failed to sympathize with this assassing the prisoner asked: "How about the Porters"

"In respect to him, your honor," continued Judge Porter, referring to the prisoner, "his time is short; and since you are content to bide his interruptions I am. His time is short."

Not got to the ansats point yet.

Judge Porter, discussing the English case cited by Mr. Scoville, referred to the hanging of the prisoner, when Guiteau said: "We haven't got to that point."

In respect to him, your honor," continued Judge Porter, discussing the English case cited by Mr. Scoville, referred to the hanging of the prisoner, when Guiteau said: "We haven't got to that point." Mortimer Matthews with her husband's mother and sisters, the wife and daughters of Justice Mat-thews.—Many ladies living on H street, includothers were a twentieth anniversary celebration others were a twement anniversary celebration of their wedding by Representative and Mrs. Cannon, of Illinois, which was an exceptionally pleasant affair; a wooden wedding party to Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Peake, at the residence of Mr. Richard Rothwell, on 9th street, which was also greatly enjoyed by all participants; an informal gathering of a lew friends at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Kauffmann; a literary and musical reception at the studio of Mrs. Morrel, and an entertainment of the same class at the residence of Dr. Bland, each of which had a pleasant and congenial attendance.

The Round-Table Shakespeare Club has been reorganized, and will meet at the residence of Miss Georgie Hunt, 201 Thirteenth street, southwest, Wednesday evenings.

would approve the act, he said he only regretted that Senator Conking or President Arthur had not stood at the door of the depot and seen this wretch siming at the President's back; the assis would have felt a blow of iron that would have paralyzed him.

There were manifestations of applause here, which it required some time to cheek.

The prisoner taking advantage of the pause in Judge Porter's remarks said: "The fact is, all the stalwarts are coming to my side very rapidly, Mr. Porter. If you would see some of the letters I have you'd think so. So are all decent people."

The burden of proof of insanity upon the work of the pause in Moore, of Philadelphia, for $22,550.

Messes, Duncanson Bros., auctioneers, sold yes-Moore, of Philadelphia, for $22,500.

Messrs, Duncanson Bross, auctioneers, sold yesterdey afternoon for Philip F. Larner and Thos. H. Cailan, trustees, the east hair of lot No. 7, in square 258, having a front of 24 feet 334 in hes on G street, between 12th and 13th streets northwest, with a depth of 75 feet, improved by two two-story frame houses, to Michael Manning for $2,230.

PHILADELPHIA, PA., January 10.—John S. Capp, of the firm of John S. Capp & Co., stock brokers, No. 31 south 3d street, committed suicide by hanging, early this morning at his office.

Telegrams to The Star

SMALL-POX EPIDEMIC IN HALINOIS.

THE POLITICAL CRISIS IN GERMANY. The Pelitical Excitement in Germany.

London, January 16.—A Berlia dispatch to the Daity News says the excit ment regarding the empeter's rescript is increasing. The Delity News in its financial article says: International politics are the subject of unfavorable attention on the stock exchange. The rescript is so unconstitutional as to amount to a revolution train above, while the deader Delita III. A REVOLUTION FROM ABOVE, while the design Prince Bismarck may have be hind cause unear iness.

Binnix, January 10.—A prominent feature of yesterday's debate in the Reachstag, was Prisco Bismarck's statement that he regarded the liner-architecture of the facpellation relating to the development of the fac-tory laws, which proceded from the electicals, as indicating their intention to support the govern-ment. This is considered to be an open overture for an alliance with the porty of the center.

The Small-pox Plague in Illinois.

Fig. Small-pox Fig. 30c. The state board of health is kept unusually busy at present wrest-ing with the small-pox epitends preventing in illinois. Cases have been reported to the board within six works from say-one points in the state, about ferry of which are still in extel, although the discusse is fairly under control at most of these places. At Bradwood the authorities have realised to account at with the health officer. Judge Porter referring to the decision in the Mormon case in the Supreme Court to support the doctrine that inspiration did not tree a man from responsibility, the prisoner exid: "The instrying of a second with had a great deal to do with a ving the republic. I have saved the republic and the people are satisfied with it."

THE LAW OF INSPIRATION

which the prisoner quoted, Judge Porter said, had no place in this court. He said that Poul when inspired had to take the consequences of his act.

"Now, Purier" said the prisoner all want you to not properly protected the cleaves by taxination.

STOCK MARKET LOWER THAN YESTERDAY.

Wall Street To-day.

Wall Street To-day.

Stock Market Lower Than Vesterday.

Judge Porter then read the widely published letter of den. Garfield to Judge Payne, congratulating him on his charge. These words, Judge Porter said, came as it were from the grave of Garfield.

Judge Porter finished speaking at 11:45 a. m.

Mr. Scoule rising, called attention to the statute which sail any person who committed narrier:

"willully and intentionally, but without mather," indicated that Congress on the Points of Law.

Judge Cox's Rulings on the Points of Law.

Judge Cox then began to give his ruling on the points of law. A number of propositions, he said, have been submitted to him to be given to the jury as instructions. The first question that was presented in due order of precedence was that of the jurisdiction of the court had been fully discussed and seriously challenged. He had deemed it his duty to investigate it somewhat, and he would read his opinion on this point from manuscript.

He reviewed the law at length, and held that a common sense application of common law principles sustained the jurisdiction of the court. It iolicities the privaletion of the court is point from manuscript.

He reviewed the law at length, and held that a common sense application of common law principles sustained the jurisdiction of the court. It iolicities and the privaletion of the court is point from manuscript.

He reviewed the law at length, and held that a common sense application of common law principles sustained the jurisdiction of the court. It iolicities and the privaletion of the court had been fully discussed and seriously challenged. He had deemed it his duty to investigate it somewhat, and he would read that common sense application of common law principles sustained the jurisdiction of the court. It iolicities are provided to the court in t per cent. Time loans on stocks are now 5a6 per cent. Prime mercantile paper is 5% a6 per cent for sixty days to four months' d.tc. The case in the local money market and the firmer rates in London have given us a higher market here for foreign the fury in this case he would enlarge further upon certain points raised in the prayers.

The Markets

"I am glad, your honor," said the prisoner, "has excluded the 13th instruction. It went in without my consent."

"Upon time first prayer of the United States he said it was his conclusion that the first proposition in the first prayer of the prosecution was correct. As the third, fifth, sixth and eighth prayers of the defence seemed to incorporate the New Hampshire rulings, he did not consider it safe to adopt them in the instructions to the jury. He could not find an authority that held that a knowledge that the act was contrary to law created a responsibility. In reference to the second proposition of the prosecution, he said it had too much vagueness. As the other instructions of the prosecution, he said it had too much vagueness. As the other instructions of the prosecution, he said, conflicted with the views he had announced, he had substituted for them another.

He considered the 7th prayer of the defence also as objection able. In regard to the 9th prayer raising the question of reasonable doubt, he said in struct them, after considering all the elements of the case, if Lavy had a reasonable doubt, he said as to the guilt of the accused, they should acquit.

As to the guilt of the accused, they should acquit.

As to the guilt of the accused, they should acquit.

As to the guilt of the accused, they should acquit.

As to the guilt of the accused, they should acquit.

As to the guilt of the accused, they should acquit.

As to the guilt of the accused, they should acquit.

As to the credibility of the witnesses, and the other, as to alleged suppressed evidence—he defined—ne as to the credibility of the witnesses, and the other, as to alleged suppressed evidence—he defined—ne as to the credibility of the witnesses, and the other, as to alleged suppressed evidence—he defined—ne as to the credibility of the witnesses, and the other, as to alleged suppressed evidence—he defined—ne as to the credibility of the witnesses, a

Last evening, for the third time since he has been minister here, Señor Zamacona, of Mexico, Mr. Davidge said that he would take two hours, and his wife, gave a ball of surpassing magnificence. The decorations within and without the two houses they occupy have never been surpassed here. All the projections of bay windows, door-ways, and cornices of the buildings were brilliant with lights, showing the red, green, and waite of said the prisoner.

The court sail he proposed to sit until four and the coat of arms of that republic blazed in gas and the coat of arms of that republic blazed in gas jets. On entering tropical plants and cut flowers were seen grouped in corners and adorning mantes and titles. The st diways were also entwined with green. Sadiax transced chandeliers and mirrors. The vista through the rooms terminated in the enclosed garden in the rear, which was brilliantly lighted and as walls flact with tail plants. The large picture of the City of Mexico still covers the wall in the rear, and on the ball cryp by wild have ball room is approached are namels representthe ball from is approached are panels represent-ing seems from peasant life in Mexico. Exchana-tions of "Oh, tais is taily land!" "Guid anything be langing more beauting?" were contantly heard. The floor of the ball room was covered > trained skirt, the front of which was or white lace wrought with pearls; ornaments pearls and diamonds. Miss Amelia Zamacona wore an elegant white gauze with puffings of gold flowered gauze. Her younger sister were heliotrope and whate. Both tolicus were highly becoming to these tresh young girls, Miss Allen, who was accompanied by her tather, the Hawaii in minister, were a lovely white tolict. The British minister accompanied his daughter, who wore white taile over white satin, with white satin low neck waist, showing most grace.ul shoulders. The waist was garlanded with pond lilies. Miss Blanche Roosevelt (Mine. Machett.) wore a superb tollet of blue satin and brocade and an entire overdress of point lace and magnificent diamonds. Mrs. Menocal, who was with her husband, wore an exquisite tollet of white satin and white Spanish lace. Speaker Ket er accompaned his wire, who was richity and becomingly dressed. Mr. Justice Miller was wit. his wite and daughter and their guest Mrs. Munson. Mrs. Miller wore a gorgeous tollet of crimson plush; the other ladies wore white. Just ce Matthews was with his wife and daughter and bis son and his bride. All these ladies were handsomely dressed, and the bride wore her wedding dress of rich white corded silk trimmed with whate lace. Mrs. MacArtiur wore white silk with flounces of black Brussells lace and Superb diamonals. Her mece, Mrs. Sartors wore white combined with black, and was looking very handsome. She was with her husband and Mr. and Mrs. Emory. Among others observed were gentlemen and ladies or all the foreign legations except Italy (whose minister is still ill) and Austria. Among them were the Chinese minister and secretaires; Mr. de Meissner on the Russian legation, and his wife, who was charmingly dressed. M. Outrey, the French minister, Mr. de Bille, of Denmark, and his wife and daughter; Mr. or Emilian wife, and margher; Justice Harlan, wife and daughter. Among our own officials and residents and their randlins were Justice Harlan, wife and daughter, and the ra companied by their guests Mrs. Mac Alphne and Miss De Wolle, of New York; Sen tor Pendleton; Senators Makey and wife; Gockr. II and wife; fill, or Georgia, and wife; Edmunds and daughter; Logan and wife, and Mrs. Jones and Mrs. Grant, or Chicago, and Windom and wife; Repasent taves Randall, Orth, Williams, of Wisconsin, and wife; Gibon and wife; Chainers, wife and daughter; Bingh in and wife; Crowley, and whe and daughter; Commissioner and Mrs. Raum; Commissioner and Mrs. George W. Adams; Admiral Almy; General and Miss Bealer Professor, Mrs. and Miss Bard; General and Mrs. Drum; General Bird Bard; General and Mrs. Drum; General Bird Mrs. Ruggles; Chief Justuce Drake and wife; Mr., Mrs. and Miss Nices; the Misses Kilbourn; Dr. Turner's daughters and Miss Wallen; Mr. and Mrs. Hannegan, with Miss Broadhead, of Philadelphia; Commodore Pattison, and his wife, daughter and nice; Miss Emma Janes; Mr. and Mrs Burchsra; Judge Scotleid, and his wife and daughter; Secretary Hunt's daughter; General and Miss Sherman; General and Miss Sherman; General and Miss Sherman; General and Miss Sherman; General and Miss On former like occasions, so the rooms were not unpleasantly full. The supper, which was served from handsomely decorated tables, was a proposed to the common of the proposed and included an abundance.